

International Program Ideas for Scouts

- Take part in existing International Scouting activities
 - JOTA/JOTI
 - Penpals
 - International Jamborees
- Learn about Embassies/Consulates and what they service they provide
 - Visas
 - Visits
 - Travel advice
- Visit the Immigration museum to learn about:
 - Events
 - Trends
 - Society's diversity
 - Migratory groups/waves that have shaped Australia
- Invite someone from overseas to visit or speak with your Group, you may be able to run activities with them or have them give a talk to the Group about their background.
 - Hosting
 - Skype
 - Politicians
 - Artists
 - Student exchanges
 - Performances
 - Speeches
- Current Events/News stories
 - Share a news story from overseas – duty of Patrol Leader to 'wrap up' what happened around the world in the week (weekly inclusions to the program)
- Travelling
 - Airport activities/modes of travel – games about buses, boats, planes, cars
 - Looking at international currency
- Look at the cost of things on eBay or similar and use a currency converter to get an understanding of value in $AUD

International Program Ideas for Scouts

- Eat some international food
 - Find a local restaurant and arrange with the Manager to do a banquet for the Group
- Linguist badge
 - Learn funny/interesting/useful quotes from other languages
- History of Scouting
 - KISC
 - Its spread and impact
 - Relationships
 - Colonialism
- International music/performing arts
- Charities/aid – international disaster relief
- History - Learn about the ways other cultures have shaped Australia
- Skype another Scout Group located overseas
- Watch a film from another country with English subtitles
- ANZAC Day related commemoration – learn about effects of war around the world
- Hold a trivia night with an international theme
- Learn about World flags, anthems and Scouting songs
- Look at pictures and places of interest overseas – Travel photos with 'WOW' factor
- Design a dream holiday, help plan and book a Troop trip
- Have a discussion about Human Rights, and how it can vary in other countries
- Research and develop an understanding of cultural habits
- Locate and discuss where different animals originated from or are usually found
- Talk to someone from a different cultural background and discuss the differences and similarities of your cultures.

