Parent Testimonials

Joey
Scouts

I had six-year-old boy/girl twins who were very shy when they joined Joey Scouts. During their time in the section, they gained confidence like I had never seen in them before. With the fun and friendly approach of the leaders, along with an exciting and appropriately challenging program, they became increasingly engaged and soon didn't miss me at all!

-Kate

Cub
Scouts

My son has thrived since joining Cubs two years ago. He has moved dens once and was welcomed at his new den very enthusiastically. He was able to participate in Cuboree 2016 and had the time of his life even getting to see some of his old den friends.

-Michelle

I have 13-year-old twins in Scouts, and they love it! Best thing they do! They learn so many practical, life skills as well as leadership, teamwork and co-operation all in a fun and supportive environment. Thank you scouts and the wonderful leaders!

-Catherine

Venturer
Scouts

My son and daughter joined Venturers when they turned 15 respectively. They've had amazing hikes, camps and social experiences that have shaped them into responsible and adventurous young people. They've also been supported by a wonderful network of volunteer leaders who have encouraged them every step of the way.

-Krista

Rover
Scouts

Having been in Rover Scouts the past two-and-a-bit years, I have had the opportunity to develop my event management skills working on various event committees, get formal Leadership training and to solidify lifelong friendships that I forged across my time in Scouting.

Supporting your child in Scouts

- Putting your child through Scouting is a shared responsibility - shared between the volunteer Leaders and the parents. Be prepared to get involved within the Scout Group to support the delivery of the Youth Program.
- Parent support roles are tailored to suit skill sets and time availability and a great way to have fun and to build lasting friendships. Why not consider becoming a Leader - training provided, learn new skills, including community recognised VET qualifications, have fun, and contribute to the future of young people.

What does it cost?

There is a cost to join Scouting and across our diverse communities, with differing needs result in some variances from location to location. Scouting fees have two main components:

Scouts Queensland

The Scouts Queensland membership fee covers provision of a range of services to our Groups, insurances as well as National and World membership of Scouting as you join more than 50 Million other Scouts across 172 countries. Current Scouts Queensland membership fees can be found via the online enrolment form.

The Scouts Queensland membership fee is charged on enrolment either to the individual or to the Group as requested through the membership application and then to the Scout Group for membership renewal each 6 months being 31 March and 30 September.

Your Local Group

To meet local expenses our Groups charge a Group fee which covers such things as local maintenance, training of adult leaders, facility insurance contributions, and administrative expenses. Each Group sets their fee according to the local needs with the frequency of collection also aligned to the needs and capacity of their community.

This Group fee will also include the 6 monthly membership renewal fee. Your local Group Leader will be able to provide more specific details.

Scouts Queensland is a FairPlay voucher activity provider. Parents, Carers or Guardians can apply for a voucher from the Government valued up to $150 for their child, which can be used towards sport and active recreation membership, registration or participation fees, limited to 1 voucher per eligible child, per calendar year.

Overnight activities, camps and major events are charged separately. Volunteering and participating in fundraising activities may provide the opportunity for these costs to be subsidised by your Scout Group.

The official Scout uniform consists of a shirt, scarf and woggle. The shirt and other Scouting items can be purchased at www.scoutshop.com.au. Check with your Group on which scarf and woggle to buy.

If the cost of Scouting becomes a challenge for your family, please reach out to your local Group to see if they can assist.
